is considered inadvisable and insecure to submit such accounts to that office for settlement. Paragraph 12.6 of the Confidential Funds Regulations recognizes the principle that claims against lapsed appropriations may be paid from current appropriations, but require approval by the Deputy Director (Administration) if an individual claim exceeds $1,000.00 or the total of such claims exceeds $10,000.00 in any one year.

4. It is requested that approval be given for the payment from current appropriations of the amount necessary to liquidate the commitments listed above.
